

Gender Pay Gap Information

The UK Government has introduced new reporting regulations under The Equality Act 2010 requiring companies with over 250 employees to annually disclose their gender pay gap from April 2017 onwards. Here we provide the statutory information and the context of our results.

The mean and median bonus pay gaps of 100% are due to footballers being the only employees to receive bonus payments.

The quartile analysis represents the number of male employees in the business being circa 4 times the number of female employees. These figures include matchday staff, who are predominately male.

I confirm that the data reported is accurate.
